

PRESS RELEASE

For more information, contact:
Name: Monica Weir
Phone #: 800.793.0064
E-mail: mweir@surebooks.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SureBooks™ Announces Board of Directors

McKinney, TX. June 9, 2010 – SureBooks LLC, a software-as-a-service (SaaS) company which allows small to mid-sized accounting and tax firms to outsource their financial processing, accounting, tax return preparation and document management, today announced its new Board of Managers (equivalent to the Board of Directors of a 'C' Corporation) which was established in the first quarter of this year:

- John K. Washington, Executive Chairman

John Washington brings more than 25 years of experience in providing bookkeeping, financial processing, debt and equity finance, income tax preparation and tax resolution. He is the owner of SureBook's principal Affiliate, and is President and General Partner of Precision One LP, a real estate development company.

John has considerable expertise in the world of finance, including corporate finance, asset management, multi-entity capital structuring, taxation, capital formation, and accounting services. He currently serves as Controller or Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of several other companies, as well, and created a more cost-effective solution for providing services and proficiencies to companies that do not have an 'in-house' Controller or CFO.

- Dennis Cagan, Chief Executive Officer

Dennis Cagan is a high-technology industry authority, and well-respected c-level executive, consultant, venture capitalist, private investor and professional board member. Dennis' career spans 43 years of founding and leading a wide variety of information technology, software, services and Internet firms. He has done business in 35 countries and has an impressive track record of both start-up and turn-around situations.

In 1976, Dennis turned his fifth start-up, David Jamison Carlyle Corporation, into one of the country's largest distributors of computer peripherals, taking it public in 1981. He served as Chairman, CEO and President of TWL Corporation based in Carrollton, Texas, and was also founder, Chairman and CEO of the Santa Barbara Technology Group, LLC, a private incubator and venture capital firm that invests in early-stage technology companies. He currently serves on four corporate Boards of Directors.

Over the years, Dennis has offered consulting services to companies such as AT&T, IBM, General Electric, and U.S. West, among others. He has authored dozens of articles, and in 1979, served as the Keynote Speaker at the first COMDEX Show in Las Vegas. Dennis attended the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) where he majored in economics, and has an honorable discharge from the USMC.

- Billy Joe DuPree, Manager

Billy Joe DuPree is an internationally recognized, master-level athlete, as well as a successful businessman. Much of the country knew Billy Joe as 'TE DuPree,' the tight end who played in three Super Bowls, two of which were as a Dallas Cowboy. His level of dedication to his craft led to his being named College All American in 1973, nominated as Rookie of the Year his first year out, and later as the Cowboys NFL Man of the Year. He has since been inducted to the College Blue/Grey Football Classic Hall of Fame, the Texas State African-American Sports Hall of Fame, and the Louisiana State Hall of Fame.

Billy Joe has gone on to develop a distinguished career. He was CEO and President of CWC Construction Company in Dallas, and held leadership positions with the City of Dallas, and as a Presidential Appointee for both the White House Conference on Small Business and Wage Committee, Federal Department. He has contributed an extraordinary amount of time to his community, serving on eight boards and supporting nine different foundations.

He holds an M.B.A. Certification in Business Administration from Tulane University in New Orleans, Louisiana, and an Associates Degree Equivalent from Michigan State University, majoring in Building Construction Management.

- Spencer Kopf, Manager

Spencer Kopf has been a licensed attorney in the state of Texas for 33 years, and offers expertise in the areas of corporate law, criminal law, sports and entertainment law, civil litigation, and contract negotiations.

At the age of 16, Spencer attended the University of Pennsylvania as a superior high school student. He attended Oklahoma City University on an academic and debate scholarship where he earned a B.A. and his Juris Doctorate. In 1982, he was appointed to the bench as a Municipal Court Judge in Collin County, and three years later, elected by his judicial peers to serve as the president of the Texas Municipal Courts Association - the first Municipal Court Judge from North Texas to be so honored. At 35 years old, Spencer was the youngest judge to ever serve in that capacity. He was also nominated by the Supreme Court of Texas to serve on the Judicial Qualifications Review Commission.

Recently, Spencer co-authored the book entitled "The Unbroken Line" with former Dallas Cowboy Billy Joe DuPree. The book recounts the true story of the 1982 National Football League labor strike which he was instrumental in resolving.

- Tom Montgomery, Manager

Tom Montgomery is Managing Partner of the Montgomery Coscia Greilich LLP, whose primary disciplines include advanced tax planning, mergers and acquisitions, and debt/equity financing for both public and private companies. Tom is a well-known investor and advisor to growing companies throughout the state of Texas.

Prior to forming the Firm, Tom was responsible for starting and growing Beal Capital Markets, Inc., an investment subsidiary of Beal Bank specializing in both public and private corporate finance products. He was also the founding and managing partner of Montgomery Baggett & Drews LLP, a full-service CPA firm in Dallas. Tom's primary activity with the firm was serving companies in tax, merger and acquisition and financing transactions.

Tom graduated from Texas Tech University with a M.S. in Accounting and Taxation, and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He sits on the Board for Children's Medical Center and actively participates in mission trips through St. Andrew's United Methodist Church.

- Lea Ellermeier Nesbit, Manager

Lea Ellermeier Nesbit is president and founder of Celadon Dental, a dental distribution company based in Dallas, Texas. Lea has held executive management positions in international sales, business development, customer service and product marketing in world markets.

Lea co-founded Lingualcare, Inc., a dental technology company that won the prestigious Dallas 100 Entrepreneur Award in 2007 for being one of the fastest growing, most dynamic companies in Dallas. Lingualcare was purchased by 3M Company in November, 2007. She has also led efforts in healthcare technology, QA software and professional services, Internet travel software development, and Windows graphics applications.

Lea serves as an advisor and mentor to several technology start-up companies in the U.S. and Germany, and frequently speaks at technology and healthcare forums. She has a B.A. in Political Science (Cum Laude) from the University of Texas El Paso and an M.B.A. from Thunderbird, School of Global Management in Glendale, AZ.

'This is a phenomenal group of highly accomplished business executives and outstanding community leaders who have significantly contributed to the success and well-being of numerous organizations, associations and communities around the world,' says Dennis Cagan, SureBooks CEO. 'Their talent and experience will help SureBooks build the momentum needed to create a substantial business services enterprise.'

About SureBooks™

SureBooks offers a unique partnering opportunity for CPAs, Bookkeepers, Tax Preparers and other financial services professionals. We fully manage monthly financial processing and data entry for our SureBooks Certified Affiliates, and offer practice-enhancing programs that address everything from on-boarding and training to around-the-clock support.

We empower our Affiliates to achieve heightened expense control, greater business capacity, and the freedom to spend time on higher value services for your clients. From bookkeeping and reporting to business analytics and tax preparation, SureBooks delivers a comprehensive suite of services in support of our Affiliates. For more information, visit www.surebooks.com.

###